FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

VINCENT R. CAPPUCCI NAMED FELLOW OF THE LITIGATION COUNSEL OF AMERICA

Vincent R. Cappucci, co-founder of the law firm Entwistle & Cappucci LLP, has been selected as a Fellow of the Litigation Counsel of America. Mr. Cappucci is head of the firm's securities litigation, corporate governance and complex litigation practices.

Throughout the years, Mr. Cappucci has served as lead counsel in many high profile securities class action and derivative litigations as well as individual actions representing the nation's largest public pension systems, investment advisory firms, hedge funds and proprietary trading firms. He has a distinguished record of success in securities litigation, having prosecuted cases in his career which have resulted in recoveries in the billions of dollars. His experience includes a multitude of complex trials, arguments in numerous state and federal appellate courts, appeals to the U.S. Supreme Court, and mediation and dispute resolution. His efforts have helped to reform the rules of corporate disclosure and enhanced transparency in board governance and, in corporate transactions, his litigation efforts have led to improved standards of fairness, process and business judgment, all to advance the rights and interests of public shareholders.

The LCA is a trial lawyer honorary society composed of less than one-half of one percent of American lawyers. Fellowship in the LCA is highly selective and by invitation only. Fellows are selected based upon excellence and accomplishment in litigation, both at the trial and appellate levels, and superior ethical reputation. The LCA is aggressively diverse in its composition. Established as a trial and appellate lawyer honorary society reflecting the American bar in the twenty-first century, the LCA represents the best in law among its membership. The number of Fellowships has been kept at an exclusive limit by design, allowing qualifications, diversity and inclusion to align effectively, with recognition of excellence in litigation across all segments of the bar.

Mr. Cappucci received his undergraduate degree from Fordham University and his law degree from Fordham University School of Law. In 2007, he was named a Fordham Law School Centennial Founder and currently serves as Chair of the Law Advisory Committee and as a member of the Dean's Planning Council. Mr. Cappucci also serves on the Executive Committee of the Fordham University President's Council, a select group of distinguished alumni committed to perpetuating the profile and interests of the University. In recent years, Mr. Cappucci has also engaged in philanthropic activities including the establishment of scholarship funds and grants at a number of academic institutions and private charities.
